

NASBP Retired Surety Professionals

becoming a NASBP
Retired Surety
Professional will keep you connected.

The National Association of Surety Bond Producers provides retired surety professionals with the opportunity to give back to the industry along with being able to continue to mature the life-long friendships developed through years as a NASBP participant.

“Retired Surety Professionals,” are those natural persons who:

- a. are former employees of regular members and affiliates, who are retired from companies in good standing at the point of the employees’ retirement
- b. have been in the surety business 15 or more years before retirement
- c. no longer engage in the production of surety as a producer or an underwriter

To obtain a NASBP membership application, contact Dasha Harris at (240) 200-1282 or e-mail her at dharris@nasbp.org.

The benefits of being a Retired Surety Professional include:

- You remain part of a highly visible surety community, consisting of both producers and surety company executives
- The opportunity to stay current with and to shape the surety industry developments
- The opportunity to provide mentorship, to the NASBP community
- The opportunity to submit articles for publication consideration in the NASBP Surety Bond Quarterly magazine, Pipeline e-newsletter, and NASBP Blog
- The opportunity to share your expertise through NASBP's Virtual Seminars, Podcasts, meetings and events
- Premier industry networking events with top echelon industry leaders and executives—NASBP Annual Meeting and Fall Meetings
- Discounts on NASBP events and products

“ I’m pleased that NASBP has added a retired member category. This will allow retiring personnel of long-time members to continue to provide historical perspective and continuity, along with mentorship, to the NASBP community. As important, this category will provide meaningful connection through continuing friendships and involvement.”
